Oelwein Public Library

We are pleased to be open! Please find a list of the restrictions that will be in place to help protect our patrons and staff members.

Hours: The new, temporary hours will be Monday-Friday 9:30 am. - 6:00 pm. and on Saturday 10:00 am. - 2 pm.

Going In: Library services will be along the lines of a "Get 'n Go" service. Patrons will pick out their items, check them out, and take them home.

Internet: Limited computers will be available for once-per-day use for 45 minutes. The Wi-Fi will be available during open hours.

Only 20 At A Time: The maximum capacity of visitors in the library building will be limited to 20 people at one time.

Meet Elsewhere: No meetings will be scheduled in the library facility.

Services On Hold: Services that would require a lot of interaction or touching of surfaces will be temporarily suspended, such as passport services, faxing of documents, and the use of the copy machine.

One-Way Route: In order to help patrons maintain a six-foot distance, a one-way traffic flow will be implemented. Patrons will enter through the main entry way and exit out the back door.

Take-Out Still Available: Curbside pickup will still be available for those who would rather not go inside the building.

The following people made donations in memory of loved ones during the month of April:

In loving memory of *Joan Fairchild

Kurt & Robin Fairchild, Brian & Dana Sinram, Nancy Schmitz, Sheila & Greg Bryan, Jack Freeman
In loving memory of *Carolyn Stammeyer

For more information on how you can create this lasting tribute to someone you have lost or would like to honor, please contact Deann Fox at 283-1515.

KID ZONE June 2020

SUMMER READING PROGRAM 2020

- ◆ Sign up for the Summer Reading Program began on May 15. This year the program will be online sign up and reading tracking with the theme of
- ◆ “Imagine Your Story”. Fairy Tales-Fantasy-Mythology
- ◆ Participants can register their name, age group (kids, teens, adults) and choose the weekly take home activity kits they would like to receive. Registration will take place online using a simple Google Form at <https://tinyurl.com/oelpl2020>. Once participants have registered, they can pick up bags with more information on Reader Zone and some fun extras.
- ◆ Participants without access to the internet can call the library at 319-283-1515 for help registering and to track reading.
- ◆ The library will utilize the online app, “Reader Zone” for participants to track their reading. Reader Zone can be used on your desktop, too.
- ◆ Access Reader Zone at <https://app.readerzone.com>
- ◆ Click on sign up in upper right corner and enter your information. When prompted, enter code 1e392 to access our reading program. Start reading and earn badges!
- ◆ The library is encouraging all participants to have a goal to read for twenty minutes per day.

FREE Fun Online Learning For Kids & Families!

Fun at Home From ISU College of Engineering

This website offers easy to do activities for kids and families. Daily themes with something to do hands-on with things around the house, dive deeper into the STEM concept, watch a program or movie together and a little bedtime boredom buster. Access the website at www.isek.iastate.edu/at-home-activities.

Each Wednesday a new LEGO build challenge will be presented where any age person can take part and be recognized. Sign up for updates at <http://eepurl.com/gXu2Uj>

Our unit exists to share with young people the fun and innovation in engineering and promote engagement with our Iowa communities on behalf of Iowa State University College of Engineering. Throughout the summer, we will be offering fun STEM things to do, even if it is from a distance. Watch for more details on our website about free virtual camp opportunities for students grades K-8.
