Thinking Money for Kids Exhibition
March 31-May 10, 2022

This is a traveling exhibit to U.S. public libraries that makes financial literacy fun. Thinking Money for Kids was developed by the American Library Association Public Programs Office in collaboration with the FINRA Investor Education Foundation, whose support made this exhibition possible.

Watch for more information on these programs

Richard Shirk, grandson of the late R. O. Shirk from Oelwein, has donated two copies of his play Sounds of Séance to the library. Richard shares a love of reading and writing with his grandfather, who was a regular columnist for the Oelwein Daily Register. His father, George, was an award winning journalist and magazine publisher. You can find a copy of his play on the shelves for checkout.

Progress on the Car Charging Station

The preparations have begun. A cement slab has been poured in the northwest corner of the parking lot. The post and electrical work are in place. Final attachments and hook up will be happening soon. This is a Level 2 Electric Vehicle Charging Station, paid for by the Iowa Department of Transportation Volkswagen Settlement Environmental Mitigation Trust program.
